

Healing Mind and Spirit: Trends in Whole Patient Care

Chaplain, Case Manager and Social Worker Conference

SAVE THE DATE

October 8-10, 2017

Sunday check-in 4:00pm with 1st session at 6:30pm. Final session Tuesday at 8:30am,
Conference check-out by 11:00am.

*Osthoff Resort and Conference Center
101 Osthoff Avenue
Elkhart Lake, WI 53020*

Overall Objective: Participants will learn best practices in bringing wholeness/wellness to mind and spirit.

Aurora BayCare Medical Center

Aurora Health Care®

BAYCARE CLINIC

"God's Heart in Healthcare since 1939"
Healthcare Chaplains Ministry Association

Alyson Capp, PhD(c) Clinical Ethicist with Aurora Health Care. Alyson has a master's degree in Theological Ethics from Marquette University and is currently a PhD candidate in Integrative Studies in Ethics and Theology from Loyola University, Chicago.

TOPIC: "Ethics Resources for Navigating Moral Distress"

Objectives:

- Identify signs of moral distress in self and others
- Understand the ethical differences between moral subjectivity and moral distress
- Learn strategies for managing and coping with moral distress

Peter Jaggard, MD, MA, CMD Medical Director at Westminster Place in Evanston, Illinois. Dr. Jaggard is a graduate of Wheaton College (IL; BA, Philosophy) and the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey – New Jersey Medical School. He received an MA in Christian Thought (Bioethics) from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He is Board Certified in Internal Medicine and Geriatrics and is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians, and serves as a member and/or Chair on a number of Ethics Committees.

TOPIC: "The Arguments for and Against Assisted Suicide (AKA Aid in Dying)": A Christian Physician Responds"

Objectives:

- Understand the historical overview of medically assisted suicide
- Verbalize arguments for and against assisted suicide
- Understand a redemptive response

Jeffery Funk, MDiv, BCC Executive Director for Healthcare Chaplains Ministry Association (HCMA). He has been a Board Certified Chaplain since 1992. He earned a master's degree from Talbot School of Theology, La Mirada, California, where today he teaches Chaplaincy. He has been involved in pastoral care since 1971. He has taught pastors in West Africa on pastoral care and chaplaincy and is a conference speaker on various topics related to spiritual care for over two decades. Jeff is an author, speaker, teacher and chaplain, with most of his experience being in healthcare settings.

TOPIC: "Boundaries for Thriving"

Objectives:

- Learn how boundaries protect us and those we serve
- Understand the value of saying, "No"
- Recognize the boundary of humility
- Learn to set "smart"-phone limits

Beej Hahn, Licensed Counselor, LPC EAP Coach with Aurora Healthcare. Beej works on a broad range of issues within the family system, utilizing cognitive behavior therapy. Beej has a master's degree in Counseling from Liberty University and is a licensed professional counselor.

TOPIC: "Compassionate Mental Health Care"

Objectives:

- Learn when to refer your patient to a counselor.
- Understand the distinctions between a spiritual or social work counselor and a LPC.
- Witness demonstrations of counsel sessions

Kristen Strother, MSW, APSW, EMT-B Director of Social Services/Case Management for Aurora Sinai Medical Center and Aurora St. Luke's South Shore. Kristen is the Clinical Director for Traumatic Incident Resource, Inc., a non-profit organization that provides Critical Incident Stress Management services to first responders in Eastern Wisconsin. Kristen is a master's level prepared social worker and volunteer EMT.

TOPIC: "Critical Incident Stress Debriefing"

Objectives:

- Identify signs of stress and distress
- Enhance understanding of Critical Incident Stress Management
- Understand appropriate usage of the CIDS

Karen Konrad, CCC Chaplain for Aurora Health, the Brown County Jail and Juvenile Detention Centers in Green Bay, WI. Karen is a member of Healthcare Chaplains Ministry Association, the Correctional Ministry Chaplains Association and the Billy Graham Rapid Response Deployment Team.

TOPIC: "Creative and Compliant Social Media Ministry"

Objectives:

- Enhance understanding of media tools available to calm and restore
- Discover the healing that music therapy, via weblinks, provides
- Advance your practice and bulk up your care tool box with creative healing aids

Vicki Marxen, MDiv Chaplain at Aurora Medical Center Oshkosh and Aurora at Home Hospice. Vicki earned a MDiv from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. She is ordained to Word and Sacrament in the Evangelical Covenant Church and is currently pursuing board certification with HCMA.

Prayer Care Forum Participants will start the morning refreshed by way of corporate prayer, using the ACTS model, sharing Scriptural prayers meaningful for caregivers, and exploring Scriptural prayers for patients and their loved ones.

Sara Wagner - Musician Minister of music for 25+ years for conferences and churches in NE Wisconsin, Sara comes to us as a gifted worship leader, musician and vocalist.

Earn up to 10 CEU's, dependent upon the total number of sessions attended.

Conference Registration Form and Fee Information released in July.